IVP Report from Gilles Legault, CILTNA
to
IMC Meeting of February 2, 2017

- Further to its Annual General Meeting of November 14, 2016, the new elected Board of Directors of CILTNA held if first full meeting on January 20, 2017, in Ottawa.

- New board members come from different transport modes and include both carriers and shipper, with different background, and include:

    - Roger Larson, former President & CEO, Canadian Fertilizer Institute
    - Bruce Burrows, President & CEO Chamber of Marine Commerce
    - Paul Miller, former Vice-President & Chief Safety Officer, Canadian National Railway

- CILTNA's membership campaign continues with follow-up with members on an inspiring call for action letter sent by the Hon. David Collenette before yean-end 2016.

- A next step in CILTNA's strategic reach for increased membership is a letter of invitation to join to targeted potential new member identified by members of Board of Directors and Regional Chairs.

- In terms of next activities:

    - CILTNA (Quebec) is organizing in Montreal a luncheon-conference on new carbon tariffs and the impact on the transportation, logistics and supply chain industry on February 7, 2017

    - CILTNA National is organizing a Workshop on Policy and Program Dialogue in Toronto, Ontario, on March 21, 2017, in the margins of discussion on a host of policy considerations, including the report on the statutory review of the Canada Transportation Act.

    - CILTNA's next national annual Outlook conference is to take place in Toronto, Ontario, in June 2017.
