In the past three months, the main activities of CILT China are as follows:

1. On September 14 and 15, 2020, the 7th China International Logistics Development Conference held in Tangshan, Hebei province. Relevant national ministries and commissions, some countries embassy commercial counsellor and logistics industry leaders nearly 500 people attended the conference, more than 200 industry representatives from around the world participated in the conference online. The conference held China Port Cooperation and Port Construction Forum, China Logistics Industry High Quality Development Forum, Chin Commodity Supply Chain Financial Service Forum and the 4th WiLAT China Forum. Through various forms of activities and integration upstream and downstream resources of logistics industrial chain, the conference shared innovation application of new technology, new idea and new model, expand exchanges and promote cooperation, accelerate the sustainable development of the logistics industry in China.

2. On November 18th, 2020, CILT China hosted "National Logistics Hub City Construction Seminar and Linyi Trade and Logistics Transformation and Development Summit Forum" during the 11th China (Linyi) International Trade and Logistics Expo. The forum with the theme of "Innovate the construction of logistics hub, assistant to build the Oriental business capital", focusing on the innovation of logistics hub and promoting the transformation and development of Linyi’s commerce and trade.

3. On December 15th, 2020, Mr. Li Gang, Vice President and Secretary General of CCTA, and Mr. Wang Ensen, President of CILT China, met with Mr. Nie Tengyun, the Chairman of Yunda Holding Co., Ltd. Mr. Wang Ensen and Mr. Nie Tengyun discussed the next step of Yunda's business expansion in Beijing, and also disscussed how to promoted the development of express delivery industry and rural logistics industry through scientific and technological innovation.

4. On December 21st, 2020, Mr. Wang Ensen, President of CILT China, and his delegation visited the "Smart Banking Experience Store" of China Minsheng Bank, Beijing Zhongguancun Branch. In addition, Mr. Wang had in-depth exchanges with China Minsheng Bank Beijing Zhongguancun Branch, and reached broad consensus on strengthening cooperation in the field of supply chain finance and operation mode.

5. In December 2020, CILT China organized corporate members to participate in the selection activity of National Advanced Organisation of Transportation Against COVID-19, which organized by China Communications and Transportation Association, and 10 companies won the award

6. On February 7th, 2021, WiLAT China held an online group meeting. At the meeting, in-depth discussions were held on the establishment of CILT China Expert Committee, the "calf training program"of WiLAT International, the publication of WILAT column in cooperative magazines, and the enhancement of CILT and WILAT online activities.