SAVOY

The Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport is a remarkable organisation, a reassuringly constant presence in an ever-changing world. At this event we celebrate our heritage, but we also rededicate our Institute to our core values, and to the task of upholding them for the next 100 years.

SAVOY

On the 3 November this year, the most influential people in the transport and logistics industry will gather together at the Savoy Hotel, London, to celebrate a century of the Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport, and everything that is good about our profession.

An enduring heritage

It was at the Savoy hotel where, one hundred years previous, our Georgian counterparts laid down the foundations of what would become CILT, an Institute with the mission to 'promote, encourage and co-ordinate the study of the science and art of transport in all its branches'. Recreating that industry defining meeting a century later, top professionals from around the world will not just join together to celebrate the past, but to continue the work of that very first meeting, to look forward to the challenges of the next 100 years, and to discuss how we as a profession will meet them.

A unique event

This is your opportunity to associate your brand with this unique event. The CILT Centenary Celebration will host a number of distinguished guests from around the world. Captains of industry, academics, politicians and thought-leaders from the logistics and transport community will meet with an open agenda, against the backdrop of a century of social responsibility in supply chain, logistics and transport, to discuss our role as professionals in the future prosperity of our industry, our communities and our planet.

Led by International President Sir Peter Hendy, the CILT Centenary Celebration is the centrepiece of a year-long series of events around the world. The Celebration will be promoted via our cross-platform social media presence including LinkedIn, Twitter and Facebook, and via our network of 35 international branches, as well as through press release to industry titles in the UK and abroad. The event will feature on our website, and proceedings will also be livestreamed to members around the world.

An Institute for the future

We as an organisation are proud of our heritage, but we are also proud of how we have changed. From our first days as the Institute of Transport, we have grown to become CILT, the leading professional body for everyone working in supply chain, transport and logistics. We have grown from one branch to thirty five, supporting over 35,000 professionals across the world. Most importantly we have embraced the cultural changes of the last century. At this Celebration we are proud to include representatives from our Women in Logistics and Transport, and Young Professionals forums as we discuss the path to a prosperous, sustainable and shared future.
